Reason for Discontinuing Affected Products

- The affected products contain a third-party software component providing specific database functionality. The supplier of this software component has informed EnOcean that this will no longer be available for use by EnOcean after January 31, 2026.
- EnOcean is unable to provide the affected products in their current form without this component and is therefore providing this last-time-buy notification.
- EnOcean is working on new revisions of the IzoT CT Professional, IzoT CT Standard, IzoT Net Server Standard, and LNS Server products that do not require this specific component. While the exact timeline cannot be guaranteed at this point, EnOcean is expecting the release of new product versions of these products within the next 12 to 24 months.
- EnOcean is not planning to release a new version of LNS DDE Server. This product will be discontinued without planned replacement.

Important Dates

- Last purchase date: December 31, 2025
- Last shipment date: January 31, 2026

Customer Impact of Discontinuation and Recommended Action

- For IzoT CT, IzoT Net Server, and the LNS Server, order the number of licenses that you will require to meet your demand for the next 12 to 24 months.
- For LNS DDE Server, order the number of licenses that you will require for the future as there will be no replacement product.
